

PAIGE GUERRA

paigelanell@gmail.com | 361.571.9238 | www.paigeguerra.weebly.com

PROFILE I am a visual artist specializing in collage and oil painting striving to bring what I've learned through art to other professional areas. Working in a creative field allows me to create fresh, original ideas out of pre-existing concepts and drives me to think critically about the world around me. I excel in innovative problem solving, visual/interpersonal communication, and quick brainstorming.

EDUCATION Bachelor of Arts Studio Art (May 2015)
Southwestern University
Georgetown, TX

Summer Intensive Drawing/Painting (June 2014)
Parsons: The New School
New York City, NY

New York Arts Program Internship/Painting Intensive (Spring 15)
New York City, NY

SKILLS Microsoft Office | Adobe Photoshop | Social Media | Graphic Design

EXPERIENCE LUSH Cosmetics, Sales Ambassador Nov 15 – June 16
LUSH is an ethically conscious, forward thinking handmade cosmetics company. My time there taught me exceptional customer service skills, working efficiently under pressure, and maintaining visual standards throughout the shop front. I built strong relationships with customers through confident product knowledge and building rapport, while also showing leadership potential to managers.

EConsortium, Administrative Assistant/Proctor June 15 – Present
The EConsortium Group is a Microsoft Gold Partner that offers IT consulting, training and testing. My responsibilities include scheduling exams in person and over the phone, proctoring tests, and technical support for all testing candidates. Utilizing my communication skills, I interact with many people on a daily basis to answer their questions clearly while also maintaining a cheery and professional demeanor in a stressful environment.

paigelanell@gmail.com | 361.571.9238 | www.paigeguerra.com

Bruce Pearson Studio, Intern

Jan – Apr 15

Bruce Pearson is a professional artist working in New York City. As his intern, I was responsible for carefully planning and preparing large projects as well as maintaining an extensive knowledge of color theory and painting techniques. I also gained experience in professional networking by attending numerous professional art openings and other important events.

Melissa Meyer Studio, Intern

Jan – Apr 15

Melissa Meyer is a professional artist working in New York City. As her intern, I assisted her in her under-graduate classes at SVA and helped to organize her expansive studio and collections. Computer and communication skills were both vital during my time working in her studio as I helped her create presentations and lessons.

SU Allies, Vice Chair

Aug – Dec 13

SU Allies is Southwestern University's queer student support group. The Vice Chair is responsible for all external and internal communication, maintaining social media accounts to better engage the members, and presiding over Council meetings. Working with Allies allowed me to work for a cause I believed in while also making a tangible difference in the student body through education and activism. I gained immense knowledge in fund-raising, community building, and event planning.

EXHIBITIONS

Student Exhibition (Apr 15)

New York Arts Program
New York, NY

Who's Laughing Now? Senior Exhibit (Dec 14)

Fine Arts Gallery, The Fayez Sarofim School of Fine Arts
Southwestern University
Georgetown, TX

Central Texas Art Competition (Nov – Dec 13)

Juror: Mark Anderson, Chair of Art Department at Baylor University
Temple College
Temple, TX

HONORS

Diversity Leadership Award, Southwestern University 2015
Who's Who Among Colleges and Universities 2014
Honorable Mention, Central Texas Art Competition 2013
National Hispanic Scholar

REFERENCES Stephanie Eargle – LUSH Cosmetics, Manager
stephaniekatherine@yahoo.com

Mustafa Cochinwala – EConsortium, President
mustafa@econsortium.com / 713.419.0838

Terri Johnson – Southwestern University, Office of Diversity Education
tjohnson@southwestern.edu / 512.863.1342